

LOUVRE

October 27, 2012
Henry Loyrette
The President-Director CEO
LOUVRE Museum
75058 Paris Cedex 01
FRANCE

Letter of recommendation for Mr. Gilles Malezieux:

Gilles Malezieux has been employed at the Louvre Museum in Paris France since 1992, where he first was a surveillance agent, then in 1993 became manager of surveillance in the Richelieu wing, which displays primarily Dutch and Holland paintings.

His job entails organizing the space in the museum to welcome visiting artists for their exhibitions, verifying security and personnel, and the smooth operation of the Richelieu wing.

Gilles would collaborate different services of the museum to organize different activities such as: renovation, art exhibits, documentaries, radio, activities for the youth, films e.g. (Devinci Code)

Art historical VIP tours of the Louvre to people such as: Princess Diana, President Clinton, The Kennedys, Princes and Princesses of several different countries throughout the Middle East, Africa, and Europe.

Gilles Malezieux is a responsible, valued agent that possesses a good understanding of public service, all the while respecting the obligations of the museum, the heirarchy, his colleagues, always paying close attention to service and the welcoming aspect of the visitors and their security.

On his personal time, Gilles Malezieux is a copyist at the Louvre since 1995. He has completed more than 100 authorized copies of the masters at the Louvre.

Since 2006, he has been on the Board of Commission of the Studies of Authorized Copies (C.E.D.A.C)

Henry Loyrette

CEO President-Director of the Louvre

telephone 01 40 20 50 50 FAX 01 40 20 54 42

www.louvre.fr